PART III—Section 3

NOTIFICATIONS RELATING TO LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER, CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF BANGALORE, BANGALORE.

Notice, dated 17th May 1951.

No. A-1-C. 15-50. The appended draft rules for the regulation and control of Public Conveyances are published for the information of the public under section 371 of the City of Bangalore, Municipal Corporation Act, 1949, read with Section 4 of the Mysore Public Conveyances Act (Act No. VII of 1911). The draft will be proceeded with as laid down in Sub-section (b) of Section 371 of the Act. Printed copies of the draft rules are kept at the Municipal Offices (City and Civil Station Areas) for public inspection and all persons are allowed to peruse them at any reasonable time free of charge. Printed copies of the draft rules will also be sold to any person required them on payment of one anna per copy.

MIR SAFDAR HUSSAIN,
Commissioner.

In Exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 4 of the Mysore Public Conveyance Act, 1911, (VII of 1911), The City of Bangalore, Municipal Corporation have made the following Rules for the Regulation and Control of Public Conveyances within the Limits of the Bangalore Corporation, in supersession of all previous rules framed on the subject by the Bangalore City Municipality and the Municipal Commission of the Civil Station.

1. These Rules may be called the City of Bangalore Public Conveyance Rules, 1950.

2. In these rules, the term "Registering Officer" means, the Commissioner or any other officer authorised by him to perform the duties under these rules.

3. No public conveyance shall be let to hire or taken to ply, or offered for hire, except under a license granted in that behalf under these rules, and no horse, pony, mule or bullock shall be used with such carriage unless similarly licensed.

4. Every public conveyance, and horse or other animal licensed under rule 3 shall be annually licensed by the Registering Officer, and no person shall keep, offer, or ply, for hire, any public conveyance within the limits of the Bangalore Corporation except under license granted in that behalf under these rules.

5. Every license granted for the purposes specified in rules 3 and 4 above shall be in the form of Schedule "A" appended to these rules, and every application for such license shall be in the form of Schedule "B".

6. The various classes of public conveyance and the license fee for the official year or part thereof for keeping, offering, letting or plying for hire each class of public conveyance, shall be as prescribed below :—

	(c) Two-wheeled carriage or cart drawn by a single bullock or buffalo or men ...	4
IV.	Rickshaw or other cart drawn by a man or men ...	2

7. (1) The above fee is for a whole turn-out, including animal or animals used for the public conveyance. But where any extra animal is maintained by the owner of a public conveyance for use with such conveyance, it shall not be so used unless a license is obtained for it on payment of the follo wing fees :—

	Rs.
(a) for each extra horse of or over 12 hands ...	4 annual
(b) for each extra horse of or less than 12 hands ...	2

(2) Similarly extra public conveyance maintained by the owner shall be licensed on payment of the following fee annually :

	Rs.
(a) For each Class I (a) conveyance ...	16
(b) For each Class I (b) Do ...	10
(c) For each Class II (a) Do ...	8
(d). For each Class II (b) Do ...	5
(e) For each Class II (c) Do ...	5
(f) For each Class III Do ...	2

8. (1) A license for a public conveyance will be refused if the following conditions are not complied with :—

(a) That the conveyance to be licensed shall be in good order and repair in all its parts and decent looking.

(b) That it shall be provided with adequate number of lights, one for the hand-cart and two in the case of other conveyances, capable of giving sufficiently brightlight.

(c) That every jutka and bullock-cart shall have apertures on both sides measuring (not less than) six inches square at the level of the driver's eye so as to enable him to see the vehicles, etc., passing by.

(d) That no horse or pony under three years of age or below II hands or a bull under two years of age shall be worked.

(e) That the horse or pony or bullock to be used with the conveyance shall be in good condition and thoroughly broken to harness or trained to yoke.

(f) That the harness shall be complete and serviceable.

(g) Thar the premises to be licensed shall be suitable and unobjectionable from a sanitary point of view.

NOTE.—In the case of a partnership firm or company, the name to be entered in the license shall be that of a partner, the Secretary or Manager, as the case may be.

9. The conditions specified in rule 8 above shall be conformed to throughout the period covered by the license. It shall be duty of every such owner to driver to examine the conveyance every now and then and to maintain it in thorough order and repair while plying such conveyance for hire.

10. Every owner of a public conveyance of Classes I and II shall, on obtaining a license therefor, put up in a conspicuous place of the premises shown in the license where such conveyance and the animals. if any, are kept, a board on which shall be painted in bold letters, in English or Kannada his name and number of the license. Such board shall be removed when the license expires or is suspended or cancelled.

11. Such premises shall be kept neat and tidy and shall be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by the Registering Officer or other officer authorised by him. If such premises are not approved, by the Registering Officer or other officer authorised by him, the licensee shall secure suitable and proper premises for his conveyance within a week from the date of service of a notice on him in this behalf.

12. The Registering Officer or other officer authorised in this behalf may forbid the keeping by the licensee or any other person of any vehicle or animal or animals other than those registered under these rules in any such premises.

13. The licensee shall give notice to the Registering Officer of any change in the premises shown in his license within a week of such change, and shall get the same entered in the said license.

14. Every licensed public conveyance shall be given a serial number. The Registering Officer or any other officer authorised by him shall cause to be painted on some conspicuous part of each public conveyance, its serial number and class, the year of the license and the number of passengers it is licensed to carry. He shall also cause the number to be stamped on such part of the harness as he thinks fit and branded on the hoof of the animal licensed for the conveyance. It shall be in the discretion of the Registering Officer to allow any public conveyance of a superior description to ply without bearing the said number.

15. If the words and figures so painted or stamped shall or obliterated, the owner of such conveyance or harness or animal shall produce the same without the least delay before the Registering Officer or other officer authorised by him to have such words and figures renewed or repainted and the same shall then be repainted or renewed without any charge whatever.

16. The examination and numbering of a public conveyance or the animal or animals used with such conveyance shall be done at the office of the Registering Officer without any charge whatever. A register of each class of public conveyance licensed and a register of animals licensed for use with such conveyances shall be maintained in the office of the Registering Officer and copies of such registers shall be kept at every police station in the City of Bangalore.

17. Every owner of a public conveyance shall, on the expiry, revocation or suspension of his license, forthwith remove the figures and words painted on the conveyance and return the license to the office of the Registering Officer immediately.

18. The owner of a public conveyance may transfer the same to any other person securing an endorsement therefor on his license from the Registering Officer.

DRIVER'S LICENSE.

19. (a) No owner of a public conveyance licensed under these rules shall allow the same to be driven by any person who is not licensed to drive public conveyance of that class.

(b) No person shall act as the driver of any public conveyance licensed under these rules unless he is licensed under these rules to drive public conveyances of that class.

20. (a) The application for a driver's license shall be in the form of Schedule "C", and shall be accompanied by duplicate copies of his photograph and a certificate of good character from a respectable person.

(b) An application which does not satisfy these conditions shall be rejected. The Registering Officer may also refuse to issue a driver's license without assigning any reasons therefor.

21. (a) The fee for the driver's license in the case of public conveyance in classes I, II and III (a) shall be Rupee one and annas eight in the case of public conveyances of classes III (b) and III (c). The license fee for each rickshaw cooly is Re. 1.

(b) The fees shall always be paid in advance along with the actual cost of the driver's badge before the license is issued.

22. The driver's license shall be in the form of Schedule "D". Such license shall be accompanied by a metal badge bearing the class and number of the conveyance for which the license is granted.

23. Every driver of class I and II conveyance shall be neatly and cleanly clad when acting as such. He shall wear a turban neatly folded, a long coat extending below the hips, and trousers reaching to the ankles. He shall wear over his coat a leather waist belt not less than four inches wide to which his metal badge shall be affixed above the right hip. Every jutka driver shall be cleanly and neatly clad and wear a clean head dress.

24. No driver's license shall be granted to any person :—

(1) who is of the female sex ;
(2) who has not completed his 18th year ;
(3) who is suffering from any infectious, contagious or loathsome disease or any other disease which in the opinion of the licensing authority is likely to interfere with the proper performance of the duties of a driver, or
(4) who has been convicted by a competent criminal court of any offence involving moral turpitude.

25. The driver's license and the badge shall not be transferable, nor shall such license or badge be lent to others.

26. A driver shall observe the rule of the road as per law in force for the time being. He shall not drive without lighting the lamps after sunset and before sunrise. He shall stand in a line with his conveyance and keep proper order when at a carriage stand. He shall not take up position on any carriage stand which already contains the full compliment of public conveyances authorised for such a stand. He shall not wait or loiter on public roads for hire or cause an obstruction to traffic or pedestrians on such roads. He shall use a whip while driving a conveyance drawn by an animal or animals. Sticks, leather strap or iron rod are not allowed to be used by the driver of such conveyance. He shall not be under the influence of intoxication of any kind, or use foul words while driving. He shall not overdrive the animal.

27. (a) The owner or driver of a public conveyance waiting in a public stand or plying for hire shall, at any time of the day or night, be bound to give such public conveyance on hire to any person demanding the same unless there be a good and sufficient reason for refusing to do so. The burden of providing such reason shall lie on such driver or owner.

(b) But he shall not be bound to carry in his public conveyance any person suffering from any contagious or infectious disease.

(c) He shall not use for hire any conveyance used for carrying any person suffering from any such disease without previously disinfecting it.

(d) He shall not without previously disinfecting it to the satisfaction of the Registering Officer, knowingly use, for hire for the conveyance of any person, any public conveyance if it has been used for the carriage of any dead body, or the carcass or meat or other parts of any dead animal.

RICKSHAWS.

28. (a) Not more than one person shall ride or be carried in a public rickshaw, drawn by one puller, provided that a child under eight years may be carried in addition to one other passenger when a rickshaw is drawn by a single puller.

(b) No double rickshaw shall be licensed unless the Registering Officer is satisfied that the owner thereof has provided and continues to maintain two licensed pullers for it, and unless it is so constructed as to provide a cross shaft five feet long in front with sufficient space for two pullers to run on either side of the shaft to propel the rickshaw.

(c) Every double rickshaw shall be propelled by not less than two pullers running in front of the rickshaw.

DURATION OF LICENSES.

29. Every license for a public conveyance and every driver's license shall continue to be in force during the official year in which it was issued unless it is revoked or suspended earlier for any breach of these rules.

All applications for renewal of the license under these rules shall be made one month before the close of the official year.

30. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 29 above, the Registering Officer may, within the official year covered by it, revoke a license granted for a public conveyance under the rules :—

(a) where he is satisfied that rule 9 is not being complied with and that the public conveyance or the animal or harness used therewith is not being maintained so as to conform to the conditions specified in Rule 8, or
(b) where the licensee is guilty of infringement of any of these rules or conditions specified in his license, or
(c) where any of the statements contained in the application for license are found to be false.

(2) The Registering Officer may likewise revoke or suspend for a definite period a driver's license within the official year covered by it :—

(a) where the driver to whom it is granted is found to be disorderly or dishonest, or
(b) where he is shown to have infringed any of these rules or the conditions specified in his license or to have disobeyed any lawful orders or directions issued under these rules or any directions given by any police officer while regulating the traffic, or

(c) where any of the statements made in the application for license are found to be false, or

(d) where after the grant of the license, the driver is convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude.

Explanation.—Revocation or suspension of any license under this rule shall not in any case act as a bar to a prosecution for any offence punishable under Section 8 of the Public Conveyance Act. Nor shall it be necessary that a prosecution under the said section shall precede such revocation or suspension.

MISCELLANEOUS.

31. The Corporation shall from time to time appoint places as stands for public conveyances and prescribe the number of public conveyances authorised for each stand.

32. All reasonable directions of the police or of the officials of the Public Conveyance Department of the Corporation shall be obeyed by every driver whether he is in the stand or on the public road, or thoroughfares or any other place of public resort.

When passengers and luggage are carried, each adult person shall be considered as weighing 1½ maunds or 126 lbs. and each child under ten years of age as weighing three quarters of a maund or 63 lbs.

37. The owner of every public conveyance except class III (b) and (c) shall put up and at all times keep in prominent position in such conveyances so as to be easily capable of being read, a clear and legible list bearing on it the class and number of the conveyance and showing the fares authorised to be charged for the hire of the same. Such lists shall be printed in English or Kannada and copies of the same shall be given to the licensee free of cost. Whenever the copy of such list supplied to a licensee is lost, defaced or destroyed, he shall at once replace it by obtaining another copy from the office of the Registering Officer on payment of one anna for the same.

38. In the case of disputes about the fares to be paid according to distance, any table or register or fares signed by the Registering Officer shall be taken to be conclusive proof of all the fares and distances therein stated.

39. On the expiry, revocation or suspension of any license granted under these rules, the licensee shall forthwith return to the Registering Officer such license together with any badge issued with the license. A person employed as a licensed driver shall, when leaving service, deliver to his employer the license and badge granted to him under rule 19.

40. When the metal badge supplied to a driver is lost, a duplicate will be supplied on payment of a fee of annas eight, similarly, the duplicate of a lost license can be obtained on payment of a fee of Rupee one.

41. Any driver who cruelly beats, ill-treats, over-drives or otherwise misuses any animal driven in a public conveyance or used it while it is suffering from a sore or wound or is otherwise unfit for work by reason of infirmity or starvation, shall be liable to forfeiture of his license in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable under section 8 (1) of the Public Conveyance Act, 1911, or under any other law for the time being in force.

42. Any property left by the hirer in any public conveyance licensed under these rules shall forthwith be deposited by the owner or driver, as the case may be, in the nearest police station or in the office of the Registering Officer. Such property shall be returned to the person who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Registering Officer that it belonged to him, on payment of all reasonable expenses, if any, incurred for its preservation and safe custody, and of such reasonable sum as the Registering Officer may direct to the owner or driver as the case may be.

43. (i) The Registering Officer may for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, prohibit the use of any premises as premises in which public conveyances or horses, ponies or bullocks registered for use in public conveyances and horses, ponies or bullocks registered for use in public conveyances that may be kept in any such premises.

(ii) The Registering Officer may also forbid the keeping of any vehicles, horses, ponies or bullocks other than those registered under the Public Conveyances Rules in any premises in which public conveyances are kept.

(iii) After the issue of any such prohibition or order, no person shall use such premises in contravention of such prohibition or order.

44. It shall be lawful for the Registering Officer or the Health Officer, or the Veterinary Inspectors of the Bangalore Municipal Corporation, or any other assistant authorised by the Registering Officer, or any officer of the Bangalore Corporation duly authorised in this behalf, or any police officer, not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector at any time between sunrise and sunset to enter any premises in which only licensed vehicle, animals, harness and other things used there which are kept for the purpose of inspection or in order to carry out any of the provisions of these rules, and the owner or his agent shall afford every facility for such inspection.

45. (a) The owner or driver of any public conveyance shall be bound to produce for inspection his license when called on to do so by the Registering Officer, Revenue Officer, Veterinary Inspectors of the Bangalore Corporation, or any Police Officer regulating the traffic.

(b) The owner or driver of a licensed public conveyance shall also be bound to produce for inspection when required to do so by the Registering Officer or the officer appointed by him in this behalf such conveyances and the animal or animals and the harness used therefor.

46. It shall be lawful for the officer appointed by the Registering Officer or his staff at any time to require a licensed public conveyance while in motion to stop in order to inspect the condition of same, or of the animal and harness used therewith. The driver of such conveyance shall stop it accordingly and give every facility for inspection.

47. It shall be the duty of any person who is driving a public conveyance or is in charge of a public conveyance while in a stand or in any street or other public place to furnish his full name and address of the owner of the conveyance truthfully and accurately whenever required to do so by any of the officers or persons mentioned in Rule 45 above.

48. Ans person who is found to be guilty of any breach of these rules or of the conditions of any license granted to him shall be liable to punishment under section 8 of the Public Conveyance Act, 1911.

49. All prosecutions for breach of these rules may be instituted by any hirer of a public conveyance, a police officer of and above the rank of a station house officer, or any other officer appointed by the Registering Officer in this behalf.

50. Any police officer detecting the commission of any of the offences under these rules, and any private person giving information leading to the detection and conviction of an offender under these rules, shall be entitled to a reward which may extend up to half the amount of the fine recovered from the offender. All applications for rewards under this rule shall be made to the Registering Officer whose decision in the matter shall be final.
